

Important Stock Supply Issue

Dear Customer,

As many of you are aware we are currently experiencing Azzalure stock disruptions across Ireland. This is due to unforeseen circumstances surrounding a breakdown in the supply of the product.

Please know that the medfx team are working tirelessly to prevent as little disruption to our customer base as possible and we are keen to navigate this hurdle as best as we can, with our customers always at the forefront of our minds.

We are hopeful that we will confidently work through this stock challenge and are committed to swiftly resuming business as usual, however we ask for you to please bear with us during this period.

Our sincerest apologies for any inconvenience caused.

Sincerely, medfx Ireland.
